7 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

8 Plaintiff,

9 vs.

10 EVELYN CARRASCO et al.,

11 Defendants.

2:15-cr-00280-RCJ-PAL-2

ORDER

13 A grand jury indicted Defendant Evelyn Carrasco in this District on three counts relating 14 to the counterfeiting of credit cards. Defendant was arrested and brought before a magistrate
15 judge in the Central District of California, who released her to a drug treatment facility, from 16 which she absconded. The magistrate judge issued a new warrant for her arrest, but the 17 Government did not apply for a new warrant in this District. At a status conference over two 18 years later, the Government was unable to tell the Court whether there was any outstanding 19 warrant from this District, so the Court dismissed the Indictment. The Government has asked the 20 Court to reconsider, arguing that it never applied for a new warrant in this District because it
21 presumed the warrant from the Central District of California was sufficient. The Government
22 argues it has never abandoned its intention to prosecute the case and is willing to apply for a new 23 warrant in this District to demonstrate its earnestness in prosecuting the case.

6 further action by the Court.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
